Pondicherry, now Puducherry about 160 km down south of Chennai on the Coromandel Coast of Bay of Bengal is a Union Territory with one of the highest levels of quality of life in the country with excellent physical infrastructure and almost a hundred per cent literacy level. The climate is tropical (between 18 and 38 degree Celsius) with two monsoons, having fairly heavy rainfall in November and very moderate rainfall in July. It is well connected with the rest of India by road, rail and air upto Chennai. There are frequent flights from Chennai to many national capitals and other important destinations across the world. Pondicherry University was established in October 1985 by the Government of India through an Act of Parliament is located in the serene surroundings of 780 acres of lush green tropical vegetation. It is the fastest growing central university in India. About 450 dedicated faculty, 5000 students, and scholars make this University highly vibrant in academic pursuits. The University offers more than 153 post-graduate programmes leading to M.Sc. M. A., M.B.A., M. Phil., and PhD degrees. Besides having oncampus teaching and research at Post Graduate level, it is also an affiliating University with 88 colleges. The University is a member of the Association of Commonwealth Universities and has signed Memorandum of Understanding with over 25 foreign universities / institutes. The University is the pioneering one to adopt a unique Choice-Based Credit System (CBCS) with modular/ unitised courses, which provides a menu of courses for students to choose depending upon a student's ambition, ability and career plan; moreover it also permits accumulating credits faster and obtaining PG degree in less than 2 years.

UNESCO Madanjeet Singh Institute of South Asia Regional Cooperation (UMISARC)

The Pondicherry University signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with South Asia Foundation (SAF) on June 20, 2009 for establishment of the Madanjeet Singh Institute of South Asia Regional Cooperation (MISARC), with financial support from South Asia Foundation. In the year 2010, the UN Educational Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) agreed to associate with all institutions of excellence established by SAF including MISARC of Pondicherry University. Hence, it has been now renamed as UMISARC (U standing for UNESCO). The institute has thus now become truly global. The Institute is currently offering M A programme in South Asia Studies. Though this is the first and the only institution in the country, which is offering this highly innovative course, it has bright career prospects in diverse fields such as governmental and non-governmental organizations, media, think tanks, international organizations and corporate sector. The course is uniquely designed to provide cutting edge knowledge of South Asian history, society, culture, economy, governance and politics, etc., from an interdisciplinary perspective. Students are expected not only to develop broad knowledge base to critically understand contentious issues concerning South Asia, but also offer a holistic perspective to address them and contribute towards promoting peace and cooperation in the region.

Publications

The Institute publishes an International Journal of South Asian Studies to provide a forum for academic research in areas relating to political, social, economic, cultural cooperation and development in South Asia. Besides, the Institute is in the process of publishing books, monographs and papers in journals and edited volumes. Together with the publication of the Journal, the Institute offers a broad research platform for refined academic debates with regular guest lectures by eminent scholars and diverse academic activities. At the same time, the Institute organises cultural meets and exchanges for promotion of cooperation and harmony in South Asia.
